(57) Abstract: A method and a system for displaying images, and an image display apparatus for use thereof are described. An image display apparatus, for example, a projector (12) is controlled by a mobile apparatus, for example, a PDA (14) in such a way that the image display apparatus (12) generates images, preferably a presentation file, for example, in PowerPoint format and reproduces and displays the corresponding images. A representation of a displayed image is transmitted to the mobile apparatus (14) in which it is displayed.
